Arthur & George by Julian Barnes

- publ 2005
- Themes
  - Religion
    - spiritism 327
    - superstition vs ratioanality 334
    - seeing 357
      - last lines of book
      - first lines of book
    - only see with the eyes of faith 355
      - biblical
  - Racism
    - odd-looking 82
    - 114 Oriental
    - class 90, 312, 314
    - none 215
    - family of foreigners
  - injustice
    - innocent yet guilty 316
    - no blame on Board of Justice 309
    - no compensation 310
    - report published Whitsun weekend 311
    - Court of Appeal set up 332
      - Patriotism?
- humour
  - prison: dry & black 158
  - narrator laughs at characters' ingenousness 40, 22
  - The English 246
    - undemonstrative
- Narrative
  - Structure
    - 1Beginnings
      - A&G
    - 2 Beginning w Ending 47
    - 3 Ending w beginning 207
    - 4 Endings 323
  - art of writing
    - 44 narrative series
    - 54 stories written backwards from end
    - 'Firstly, to be intelligible, secondly, to be interesting, and thirdly, to be clever.'
    - Doyle favoured over Zola (vulgar) 333
      - Drefus affair
  - Letter format
    - narrative within speech
  - setting: Victorian
    - 1892 (p.42)
      - retro?
        - values?
- Characters
  - A
    - athletic
      - imaginative
        - Detective stories
    - famous
      - spiritualist
        - ophthalmologist
  - G
    - unimaginative
      - routine
        - Railway Law
    - friendless
      - stolid
        - poor sighted
  - Similarities
    - "unofficial Englishmen"
    - trapped?
      - A: in triangle 192
      - G: at home
  - Campbell
    - incompetent police inspector
  - Women
    - Maud
      - Jean
        - Mam
    - role to support men?